Sunday Music Concert Series - "By B-Flats" April 11, 2010

By B-Flats is a clarinet ensemble consisting of musicians from the Quincy (IL) area who have been performing together for over fifteen years. They featured a concert titled A Musical Trip Around The World, which includes such popular music as Mississippi Rag, Way Down Yonder in New Orleans, Muy Buenos, and A Klezmer Wedding. Members of the By B-Flats include Rick Bybee, and Dr. Alan Nichols, Dr. Robert Sibbing, and Dr. Christine Damm.

"That's Amore" - February 12, 2010 - The many Musical groups of St John presented a cabaret dinner with a silent auction. It was attended by about 130 hungry, happy people. The menu was Italian and the entertainment included sounds of love for Valentine's Day. The Adult Choir, the Mosaic Band, the Bells of St. John and many small groups and soloists performed. It was quite a success and the proceeds went to the Music Department.

Sunday Music Concert Series - Kristine Stout, Bell Ringer

"JoyBells to the World" On December 13, 2010, Kristin Stout entertained us with her handbells and her wonderful sense of humor. She plays 3 octaves (37 bells) all by herself! Her beautiful music is a passionately joyous celebration of inspiration and a joyful heart.

Sunday Music Concert Series - Amy Jo Sawyer, Accordionist

"The Versatile Accordion" On October 11, 2009 "Classical Jazz & Sacred Sounds of the Accordion" was presented. Amy Jo Sawyer is an established world virtuoso accordionist. She has performed extensively in Europe, Australia, New Zealand as well as the United States. She is the accordionist with the St. Louis symphony, and has performed with university orchestras. Her credentials are extensive and we were so pleased to have her at St. John.

Sunday Music Concert Series - Christopher Schroeder, Organist

April 19, 2009

This inaugural concert was performed on April 2009 by Christopher Schroeder of Indianapolis, Indiana. He has been a church musician and concert recitalist for more than 20 years. St. John was lucky to have him for our first concert series.
